

Medicinal, dry smoke pepperyness

SMOKY

Pungent smoky, peaty richness

Floral, herbal, grassy freshness

DELICATE

Nutty, barley, biscuity subtleness

Leafy, stewed fruit ripeness

Dried fruit, sherry richness

LIGHT

RICH

Fresh fruit, citrus crispness

Spiced, woody complexity

By comparing our grid references (eg E5) with the map above you can deduce its relative profile with other whiskies that should be familiar to you - see below.

The SINGLE MALT WHISKY FLAVOUR MAP

Medicinal, dry smoke pepperyness

SMOKY

Pungent smoky, peaty richness

Floral, herbal, grassy freshness

DELICATE

Nutty, barley, biscuity subtleness

Leafy, stewed fruit ripeness

LIGHT

Fresh fruit, citrus crispness

Dried fruit, sherry richness

RICH

Spiced, woody complexity

Here we have overlaid our abbreviated Stock List Flavour codes.

The SINGLE MALT WHISKY FLAVOUR MAP

Medicinal, dry smoke pepperyness

SMOKY

Pungent smoky, peaty richness

Floral, herbal, grassy freshness

DELICATE

Nutty, barley, biscuity subtleness

Dried fruit, sherry richness

RICH

Spiced, woody complexity

The Flavour Map has been prepared with and endorsed by the independent whisky expert, David Broom, together with Diageo Scotland Limited. The Flavour Map features many brands of malt whisky, some of which are owned by and are registered trademarks of Diageo Scotland Limited and some of which are owned by (and may be registered trademarks of) other companies. In addition to the names of individual distilleries listed on the Flavour Map and the Classic Malts words, the Quaich device, the Flavour Map device and associated logos are trade marks.